Remarks & Conditions

1. Silhouette Cruises Ltd., employees and crew does not hold any responsibility for any delay or cost incurred by Passengers as a result of international or domestic flight problems or force majeure events affecting the cruise's program.
2. Silhouette Cruises Ltd. will reserve, coordinate and pay for the domestic flights related to the cruise if applicable. The flight costs detailed under „Private domestic flight (IDC) Assumption/Mahe to Mahe/Assumption per person sharing” in the 7-nights expedition's rate sheet are the official rates for 2016, provided by IDC. Silhouette Cruises Ltd. reserves the right to revise the flight rates, received from the service provider, IDC. The flight costs will be recalculated to ensure that Silhouette Cruises does not accrue any loss from the flights during the season, especially because of the possible first and last flights of the season that are empty. This could happen as a result of high increase of fuel cost.

The luggage allowance will be 20 kgs per passenger. Silhouette Cruises will use the flights to provide the vessel with food provision and spare parts as required. It is understood that the guest's luggage allowance may be decreased in case of unforeseen circumstances (spare parts needed etc.).

3. The landing fees detailed in the rate sheet under „Landing fees for the whole expedition per person (est.)” are calculated using the official rates, provided by the management of the visited islands.
